Joke on the Old Man

Old man Jones and his son John came to town the other day and sold their hogs. The man they sold to gave each of them a check on this bank for the proper amount. Now the old man was just a little too wise. "Say," says he, "if it is just the same to you I would rather have the cash," and asked John if he wanted the cash also. John said he had just as soon have the check. John gave the check to his father to keep for him, but on his way home the old man lost his pocket book and although they looked high and low it could not be found. The money and check were both lost forever. But say, John came back to the man who gave him the check and the man just gave him another check for the amount and notified this bank that if the old check turned up not to pay it. "But he wouldn't give the old man some more cash! A CHECK ON THIS BANK IS BETTER THAN CASH."

WEEK-DAY SERMONS

A Few Timely Words or Suggestions for the Busy Man.

Do right and do it right and don't care a snap what others will say or do. Of course a man who honestly seeks to do right will displease and even offend some, but who are they? A good man an honest man and a man who has common sense will not be offended at right; or if he is, will soon apologize for his hasty temper. Fraud and hypocrisy may gain a point, but can never hope to enjoy lasting success. What the world needs is men who do right for the sake of right.

A good newspaper is the grandest temporal blessing that God has given the people of this country. In the first place, all the people read the newspapers, and the newspapers furnish the greatest portion of the reading to the people. They don't read books. The old people look for deaths, the young look for marriages, the business men read the business and financial columns, and those who are unemployed read the want advertisements. Great libraries make a few intelligent men and women, but newspapers lift the nation into the sunlight.

Contest was a Hummer.

Fourteen weeks ago the Expressor inaugurated its big subscription contest and last week marked its close. It was a success far beyond our expectations and we can now boast of the largest subscription list of any paper in northern St. Clair County. Besides, we can show the best paid-up list in this part of the state, there being but very few subscribers who are not paid up a year ahead. Many of them are two or three years ahead and we have some paid up to 1916.

The Expressor goes to nearly fifteen hundred subscribers each week, and to verify our statement our books are open for the inspection of anyone interested therein.

As we stated early in the contest we expected to gain mostly through the increased prestige we would obtain. As an advertising medium the Expressor is "a mile ahead" for anyone wanting to reach the buying public in this vicinity. There are very few homes within a radius of ten miles of Yale in which the paper is not read, and the only way you can reach over one-half of these homes is by advertising in the Expressor. It is our intention as soon as we can get the necessary help to print each week a ten page paper, thereby giving us a chance to better handle our rapidly increasing advertising patronage. We will also be in better shape to handle more correspondents from surrounding points.

We wish to thank each of the contestants for their untiring efforts to win the prizes, and only wish that each one could have won a piano. But they will have another chance in the future, as we expect to put on a different kind of a contest, one in which the winners will be treated to a big lake trip, with all expenses paid.

Detroit and Yale.

A certain young lady (name withheld) from Detroit was visiting a relative in Yale, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. Tuesday being a nice bright day the young ladies were sitting out on the porch talking about their respective homes. Detroit lady says, "Why I wouldn't want to live in Yale all the time because you can't see anything or get anything nice. Now you see if you were down home with me today, I could just step to the phone and have some ice cream sent up to the house."

Yale lady says, "Oh I forgot" and she went into the house and about ten minutes later a boy came up the walk with a quart of ice cream. Detroit lady says, "Where did that come from?" "From Smiths" replied Yale lady. "I phoned down next door to Smiths, so you see we can do something in Yale too as well as your old Detroit."

YALE 5; CROSWELL 0

Our Boys Get to Pitcher VanCamp in Eighth and Spoil a Fine Pitchers' Battle.

The High School boys won their second game of the season last Friday when they crossed bats with the Croswell first nine at that city.

For the first seven innings it was a fine pitchers' battle between VanCamp and Johnson, both port siders.

The Yale men were constantly getting on bases while Croswell had a hard time reaching first base. Fourteen of them sitting down after taking three healthy swings at Johnson's elusive offerings. Neither pitcher passed a man.

Yale out-hit Croswell 10 to 4. Yale started the scoring in the seventh.

Lutz opened that inning with a single; Sheehy forced him at second; Sheehy then stole second and Allen sacrificed him to third and he scored on Broadway's single to center. After two were out in the eighth Hydorn was hit with a pitched ball. Lutz hit to pitcher who fumbled the ball and both were safe; Sheehy singled through the box, then with three on Allen smashed the ball into left for two bases and three runs were across. Allen scored on a passed ball. The features of the game were the pitching of Johnson and the catching and batting of Allen. Following was the score by innings:—

Helen Wyrick Shafer

Many missed a treat last Friday evening by not hearing Helen Wyrick Shafer at Central hall. The entertainment was given under the auspices of the Methodist Episcopal ladies and although a goodly number were present who enjoyed a rare evening's pleasure, the hall was not filled. Mrs. Shafer is a reader and eloquentist of much ability. She is a favorite with Yale people having delighted a large audience last year in "The Lion and the Mouse."

In her second appearance last week she gave a miscellaneous program, each number being so good that everyone wanted more.

Mrs. Shafer has a very pleasing personality, a most winning manner and is an artist in her work.

All hope to see her again in Yale.

Beulah Benedict and little Dick Newman assisted in the evening's entertainment with some fine solos, much appreciated. Nila Holden and Ruth Menzies played instrumental duets at the opening and closing.

Jackson-Ulrich Wedding.

A very pretty wedding occurred at St. John's Episcopal church, Detroit, Wednesday, April 12, when Miss Grace Jackson, of Greenwood, and Arthur Ulrich, Detroit, were united in marriage by the Rev. Wm. F. Faber.

The bride was attired in pale blue LaMouresque silk with pearl trimmings and wore a white picture hat. Miss Pearl Moore of Detroit attended the bride and Herman Marx of Detroit was best man. After the ceremony the guests enjoyed a four course dinner at the Hotel Cadillac. Mr. and Mrs. Ulrich will take up their residence at the home of the bride's mother in Greenwood.

Birthday Party

On Friday evening April 14, a number of young people from Capac, North-east Mussey and Mt. Salem, visited the home of Chris Stevens near Yale and surprised his daughter Myrtle it being her birthday.

Dancing was the amusement of the evening after which a dainty lunch was served.

The guests departed at an early hour all wishing Miss Myrtle many more such happy birthdays.
